SEASON OF CREATION
 This season begins on September 1, the day of Prayer for Creation and runs through October 4, 2019 on the Feast of St. Francis, who is the patron saint of ecology. We are called to protect creation, reflect on how our lifestyle affects the environment and to make a commitment to a more sustainable way of living. Further resources are available in the Archdiocesan Office for Human Development (AOHD) website: www.aohd.org
