ANNOUNCEMENT

REMINDER TO VOTE ON NOV 19 – (GE 15)

Dear parishioners, kindly remember it is our supreme religious obligation and duty to vote “pay Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and God what belongs to God” (Mk: 12:17) General Election is our Democratic right in choosing a good morally upright leader to govern our nation. Therefore it is our moral duty to be engaged in this most important civil duty. It is also encompassed in the Catechism of the Catholic Church ref Nos 2242 – 2243

If we fail to vote, there is a possibility that a phantom voter will use our ballot paper to vote. The church always stands for pro-values and supports Justice and Peace. The Church is never partisan. Choose wisely and consciously.
